

2024 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Paniolo Preservation Society was founded in 1998 as a 501(c)3 to increase public awareness of the historical, present-day, and future significance of Hawai'i's ranching industry with an emphasis on the roles, traditions, and contributions of the paniolo. We are dedicated to preserving the paniolo tradition as a profound part of the history of Hawai'i and the American West. PPS is also committed to perpetuating Hawaiian ranching as a proud and living heritage and contributor to the economic and cultural vitality and diversity of Hawai'i.

In hopes of continuing to preserve our unique paniolo heritage, PPS values our younger generation and will be awarding four scholarships of $500 each to participants in Hawaii High School Rodeo Association. Two awards will be an academic scholarship. Eligible candidates must be senior enrolled and continuing their education at a college/university or community college with a focus on agriculture, arts or history. The other two awards are for community service. Eligible candidates must be a senior who have demonstrated their involvement in helping better our community and/or preserving our Hawaiian culture.
